

1. Plans should respect the concerns of people who do not wish to be exposed to animals.
 - a) True
 - b) False

2. The best disaster preparedness starts at which level?
 - a) Personal
 - b) Local
 - c) State
 - d) Federal

3. Which of the following Federal organizations is most likely to provide assistance regarding the safety of livestock feed in a federally declared disaster?
 - a) Department of Agriculture
 - b) Food and Drug Administration
 - c) Environmental Protection Agency
 - d) Federal Emergency Management Agency

4. The emergency operations plan functions as a local law.
 - a) True
 - b) False

5. A legal agreement among two or more local jurisdictions that plan to assist each other in cases of emergencies is which of the following?
 - a) Mutual aid agreement
 - b) Local law
 - c) Local ordinance
 - d) Memorandum of understanding

6. Which of the following government agencies may send veterinary medical assistance teams (VMATs) in the event of an emergency?
 - a) Department of Defense
 - b) Department of Health and Human Services
 - c) Department of Agriculture
 - d) Federal Emergency Management Agency

7. Adding a distinctive smell to odorless liquid propane gas is an example of what type of mitigation activity?
 - a) Reducing or limiting the amount of hazard manufactured

- b) Modifying the basic qualities of a hazard
 - c) Modifying the rate or spatial distribution of the release of the hazard
 - d) Disseminating information
8. Animals that have been exposed to hazardous materials present no danger to people.
- a) True
 - b) False
9. When confronted by a dog that seems as though it is going to attack you, which of the following actions will most likely reduce the risk of being bitten?
- a) Running away
 - b) Yelling for help
 - c) Lying down and playing dead
 - d) Putting something between yourself and the dog
10. Which method of carcass disposal involves mixing 1 part carcass to 2 parts litter and 1 part straw in alternate layers in a boxed, enclosed area?
- a) Rendering
 - b) Burial
 - c) Composting
 - d) Fermenting
11. Which of the following is NOT accounted for in community damage assessment?
- a) Number of animals killed or injured
 - b) Damages to structures
 - c) Damages to a community's infrastructure
 - d) Personal items such as photographs
12. Who is responsible for coordinating the Federal agencies and programs involved in assistance?
- a) State Coordinating Officer
 - b) FEMA
 - c) Federal Coordinating Officer
 - d) Local emergency manager
13. Which of the following is NOT a form of assistance that may be provided following a Presidential disaster declaration?
- a) Legal services
 - b) Food coupons

- c) Permanent housing
 - d) Unemployment assistance
14. Holding training sessions for officials with roles in the emergency operations plan is an example of approaching which of the following groups?
- a) Private-sector organizations
 - b) The public
 - c) The media
 - d) Government
15. Creating brochures is expensive, and NOT recommended as a way to inform the community about the emergency operations plan.
- a) True
 - b) False
16. Senior citizens are a valuable source of volunteers.
- a) True
 - b) False
17. Public awareness campaigns accomplish which one of the following?
- a) Form partnerships between emergency management and animal-care communities
 - b) Plan implementation, including who is responsible for which actions
 - c) Address hazards that may potentially affect your community
 - d) Assign roles to various governmental agencies in emergency response
18. Emergency operations plans should not be tested in advance, so that responders will react with additional energy and not be complacent.
- a) True
 - b) False
19. Which is NOT a method of reducing the impact of floods on animals?
- a) Creating flood protection for roads into and out of the farm
 - b) Locating stables and other animal buildings on high ground
 - c) Making plans for evacuation of companion animals
 - d) Identifying cost-effective methods of disposing of animal carcasses
20. During a disaster, information about a temporary animal shelter:

- a) Is best communicated to the public by each separate department involved in the disaster response.
- b) Should be conveyed to the public by the Public Information Officer to ensure a coordinated and consistent message.
- c) Can most efficiently be communicated by posting a sign on the front door of City Hall.
- d) Is most effectively conveyed by announcing it to all local veterinarians so they can inform their patients.